ORDER #	DATE	DESCRIPTION
04-AO-0008P	12/9/04	ORDER - IN THE MATTER OF NORTHERN DIST. OF IOWA FIREARMS POLICY FOR PROBATION AND PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICERS - The Court reaffirms its previous ORDER that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 3154(13) and Section 3603 (9) each regularly appointed probation officer of this Court is authorized to carry a firearm for self-defense purposes during the general performance of his or her duties when qualified and authorized by the Chief Probation Officer. It is further ORDERED that said probation officers carrying firearms comply with all rules and regulations governing the carrying of firearms by such officer, including the firearms policy of this District, which is approved herein, the firearms regulations of the Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, and the national firearms policy.
04-AO-0009P	12/9/04	ORDER - IN THE MATTER OF THE REVISED FORFEITURE COLLATERAL SCHEDULE PROMULGATED BY THE FEDERAL PROTECTIVE SERVICE - In the matter of the determination of a revised schedule of appropriate penalties for violations of statutes under Title 41 of the US Code, by the Federal Protective Service to prescribe the forfeiture of collateral schedule for prohibited conduct on federal property, the Court hereby finds that for the effective, efficient and proper administration of justice in this district, the following schedule of penalties for violations of the above mentioned regulations committed within the Northern Dist. Of Iowa should be established (See Text).
05-AO-0001	01/20/05	ORDER - Approving Revised Search Policy of U.S. Probation Office
05-AO-0002	02/01/05	ORDER - IN THE MATTER OF SENTENCINGS UNDER UNITED STATES v. BOOKER, 2005 WL 50108 (Jan. 12, 2005) - In order to assist lawyers and defending criminal cases in the U.S. District Court for the Northern Dist. Of Iowa, the judges of the district enter the following administrative order: 1. Where there are contested advisory U.S. Sentencing Guidelines issues the judges will follow the prior procedure of determining contested guideline issue facts by a preponderance of the evidence standard without a jury. 2. If a party wants the court to depart, either upward or downward, from the advisory U.S. Sentencing Guidelines range using traditional departure theory, then a motion should be filed accompanied by a brief. 3. If a party wants the court to vary, either upward or downward, from the advisory guideline range, on grounds other than traditional departure theory, then such a motion should be filed accompanied by a brief. 4. All such motions and briefs, subject to this order, shall be filed at least seven days prior to the scheduled sentencing. Late requests for departures or variances from the advisory U.S. Sentencing Guidelines may be denied by the court as untimely.
